Join in this weekly Tuesday afternoon series on topics in teaching and career development, aimed at graduate students and postdoctoral scholars in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics and social science fields.

Group Viewing and Discussion in 341 Caldwell Hall
Lunch provided at 11:45 | Webinar 12:00pm - 1:00pm
RSVP appreciated

October 21, 2014
Using Your International Background to Your Advantage in the Classroom
Molly Jolliff - University of Rochester and Kimberly Kenyon - Cornell University

October 28, 2014
Grading and Effective Feedback in the American System
Sabrina Kramer, Emily Grossnickle, Lijuan Shi - all of University of Maryland, College Park

Join additional online sessions at:
www.cirtl.net/events

October 7, 2014 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Student-Teacher Interactions: What to Expect
Molly Jolliff - University of Rochester & Lijuan Shi - University of Maryland

October 14, 2014 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Difficulties and Challenges for International TAs in the United States
TA Panel from University of Maryland