

It is important to take care of ourselves and also to look out for one another as members of a caring community.

Know Someone Who Needs Help?

You have resources.

Gannett Health Services

24/7 phone consult: 255-5155

- physical/mental health
- concern for others

Dean of Students

255-1115

EARS Peer Counseling

255-3277 (5-EARS)

grad counselors available

Int'l Students & Scholars

255-5243

LGBT Resource Center

255-4406

Ombudsman

255-4321

Religious Affairs (CURW)

255-4214

Student Disability Services

254-4545

Title IX Coordinator

255-2242

Victim Advocacy

255-1212

Bias (concerns/reporting)

255-1426

Sexual Violence (care/reporting)

SHARE.cornell.edu

Support & Services for

Graduate Students

1. Contact your DGS or GFA

2. Contact the Graduate School: 255-7374

3. [gradschool.cornell.edu/
resources](http://gradschool.cornell.edu/resources)

4. [gradschool.cornell.edu/
student-life/communities](http://gradschool.cornell.edu/student-life/communities)

Support & Services for

Professional Students

Johnson: 255-9395

Law: 255-5839

Veterinary Medicine: 253-3700

Support & Services for

Postdoctoral Associates

Postdoc Studies: 255-5823

Faculty and Staff Assistance

Program (FSAP): 255-2673

consult a caring community resource

You can make a difference.

Notice those around you.

Ask questions.

Express your concerns.

Help them find support.

Find more information:

- gannett.cornell.edu/notice
- caringcommunity.cornell.edu

24/7 local crisisline 272-1616

Emergencies 911

Cornell Police 255-1111