Searching for Local Employment
Friday, February 6, 2015 • 9:00am -11:00am
Ithaca Visitors Center
Are you looking for information about employment in the Ithaca area and beyond or unsure of what agencies can help with your job search process? The Graduate School and Tompkins Workforce have teamed together to offer this session for graduate and professional student spouses/partners. At this session, you will gain valuable information about how to conduct an effective job search in the Ithaca area and learn about resources available to support you. In addition, participants will also network with one another and be given the opportunity to talk about their own experiences so that we can better meet your needs. This session is designed for spouses/partners who have secured work authorization in the United States.

Light breakfast will be served.

Volunteering in the Community
Wednesday, March 4, 2015 (DATE CHANGE) • 3:00pm—4:00pm
Big Red Barn, Cornell campus
Presentation, followed a networking opportunity (and light snacks)
Becoming a volunteer is a great way to be engaged not only at Cornell, but in the local area. Amy Somchanhmavong from the Cornell Public Service Center will present to our graduate student spouses/partners interested in learning how to become a volunteer. Learn what the volunteering process is, common volunteering roles that you may want to pursue, and what the Cornell Public Service Center can do for you. This session is designed to be an introduction to a Cornell resource that is committed to helping you find the right volunteering fit. Also, Tompkins Time Traders (T3) will be present to introduce their service as they are an organized exchange system serving all ages, through which members exchange Time Credits (TC). This session is open to interested graduate students.
