APPLICATION FOR READMISSION

Form R3

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Information for International Students

In order to maintain your legal immigration status and remain legally in the United States, you must be a full-time registered student at all times. If you have questions regarding this requirement, please contact International Services in the Office of Global Learning in 300 Caldwell Hall. Contact information can be found at https://international.globallearning.cornell.edu/.

If you require an F1 or J1 visa, it will be necessary for you to demonstrate that you have sufficient financial resources for your studies. Also, if you will be accompanied by dependents, you must provide evidence of sufficient financial resources to support them, as well as the full legal name, birth date, country of birth, and relationship of each person accompanying you.

INSTRUCTIONS

Graduate School use only:

- This form is for previously enrolled students who wish to reapply for admission to their prior graduate field within Cornell's Graduate School. If you are seeking admission to a different graduate field, please complete the standard application for admission.
- The Graduate School will send this application and a copy of your permanent file to the field. You may submit, or may be required by the graduate field to submit, additional information to supplement the documents in your permanent file. Questions can be e-mailed to gradstudserv@cornell.edu.
- Only one application may be submitted at a time; multiple applications will not be processed. Submit the completed form to Graduate School Student Services (gradstudserv@cornell.edu). All entries, excluding signatures, should be printed or typed.
- If you have questions, please contact the Graduate Student Services Office at (607) 255-5820.
